Scent Diffuser

Lying on warm quartz sand, carried away by heavenly scents into a world of comforting relaxation? That too is possible with the MLX Quartz! Because the innovative Essential Oil Function literally offers a fragrant equipment plus. The function with its three integrated fragrance chambers – like all other table extras – is easily controlled via the touch display. However, you do not have to limit yourself to just one essential oil. Thanks to the individual fragrance chambers, you can combine up to three fragrances. With these individual, ethereal fragrance compositions, your treatments will be an unforgettable experience!

Dynamic Flow System

For special types of massages

The innovative MLX Quartz sand spa table is available with the exclusive Dynamic Flow System - for even more intensive and efficient treatments:

Air chambers integrated into the table, which are pre-programmed to fill with air and empty out, move the pleasantly warm quartz sand around. This way, even without therapists, your customers will experience a soothing back massage, which relaxes the muscles and mobilizes the body as a whole.

For a massage treatments by a therapist, the MLX Quartz and the Dynamic Flow System offer a 360°-treatment: The controlled-temperature sand warms the body, while the gentle movement from below support the massage of the practitioner from above. An extraordinary, all-round relaxation experience for your customers!

The Dynamic Flow System...

...shifts the sand in the area of the back in gentle, wavy movements. These have a pleasant and relaxing effect.

WellMassage4D

The innovative treatment concept

Up to now, you were only familiar with massages where customers are lying flat. With WellMassage4D that's now completely different! This signature treatment was created in collaboration with Jean-Guy de Gabriac, CEO of the Belgian massage and spa specialist Tip Touch International, especially for the MLX spa table.

The unique treatment concept combines high-tech & high touch to create high impact. With its innovative mix of strokes, pressure massage, sliding massage strokes, and mobilization and meridian stimulation in combination with eight programmed table positions, the WellMassage4D offers an extraordinary full-body treatment for sustained deep relaxation.

You will learn the innovative treatment concept in our WellMassage4D training course, where the eight special table positions are also explained and saved.

8 Step Treatment

8 preset positions for 8 particular treatment steps

With the WellMassage4D with its eight special treatment steps, the perfect flexibility of our high-tech MLX spa table is fully utilized. With unique motion sequences and pre-set positions, MLX offers treatment options unlike any other spa table!

The combination of high tech & high touch ensures a unique spa and relaxation experience. At the same time, it offers the therapist the opportunity to work ergonomically in the best possible way, i.e. back-friendly and saving their strength.

WellMassage4D can be run as 50- and 80-minute treatments in two versions:

"RELAX"

The deep relaxing effect of this program lets your customers forget the stress of everyday life.

"DEEP"

The focus of this program version is on the additional relaxation of stress-related tense, aching muscles.

Spa.Wave

Binaural Acoustic & Dynamic Stimulation

Anti-stress experience

Spa.Wave – The Binaural Acoustic & Dynamic Stimulation – combines the gentle sound waves of a special music with a highly efficient vibration massage system integrated in the table surface. While the special sounds soothe the mental activity, the vibration massage specifically affects the energy centers (chakras) of the body. Thus, this innovative sound massage system combines the effects of deep relaxation techniques with those of meditation and mindfulness practice. In this way, Spa.Wave offers a very exceptional and particularly effective relaxation and anti-stress experience.

Waves make the difference

The electrical impulses of brain cells reveals whether our brain is in the waking or resting state. They can be measured as brainwaves with different frequencies in brain wave curves. Thus, our semi-sleep and our state during light meditation are both characterized by low-frequency alpha waves. Theta waves can be found during the sleep and dream phases, as well as in deep meditation. If our brain waves vibrate in the alpha or theta modes, we are in a state of deep relaxation. Delta waves on the other hand determine deep sleep. Our self-healing powers become active during this phase.

Relaxation – better than sleeping!

The Spa.Wave system uses the soothing power of the slow, evenly vibrating brainwaves very specifically. The basic technology here is Quantum Harmonic Audio Therapy: Special music with binaural tones (two simultaneously very slightly different frequencies) generates gentle sound waves in time to a calm heartbeat. They stimulate the brain and put it in alpha to delta mode. This way body, mind and soul find deep, soothing, and regenerating rest.

2. With Kohler® technology: These ensure a kind of special water choreography through a temporary, pre-programmed start and stop.
3. With the Dornbracht® technology, your customers will experience deeply relaxing water choreographies with an additional Kneipp effect thanks to the alternating water temperature during the showering process.

Many functions can also be accessed via an intuitive touch screen display.
